

SHARE Forum I meeting.

Place 21.04.06, Tallinn Kredex Office.

Time 10.00 – 12.00

Participants - see registration list.

Topics discussed

- Training needs
- Awareness rising program planning
- Typical problems and solutions on energy saving in dwellings.

Training needs pointed out

- Energy label – what is this and who need it?
- Energy audit – what kind of answers get from it?
- Energy management – what is it and why?
- Additional insulation – when start with this and best practices.
- How doors and windows renovation influence internal climate conditions, mistakes to avoid.
- Heating system regulation requirements
- Ventilation system handling after additional insulation
- New equipment users training (sub-stations, ventilation systems regulation)

Awareness rising

- How to activate low active association members or associations?
- What gives the real energy
- Ventilation as energy saving tool
- Introduction of best practices Info materials

Typical problems.

- Understandability of materials on the level of decision makers.
- Some existing awareness materials are not understandable or are not available.

Next Forum topics

- Identifying target audience for training and awareness materials
- Information for awareness for end users